

Natural Selection (Endangered Hearts Series Book 2)

To ensure she would have the life she deserved, Kasper Zafar ended his relationship with the beautiful Emilia Ward, sentencing both of them to a broken heart and lonely life. But haunted by the memories of the foolish girl who stole his heart, Kasper has determined himself to win her back or kill himself trying. It's been a year since Emilia Ward left Iram manor, and when Kasper comes back into her life the walls she has constructed around her heart threaten to come down. And she might need him more than she wants to admit. Yet as badly as she wants him back, she won't let him get away with hurting her so easily. Kasper needs to learn his lesson, and Emilia thinks she's just the one to teach it to him. However, just as they renew their sensual affair, Kasper's elusive past comes back to jeopardize their happiness. If he's not careful, he may just die fighting for her after all.
