

The Feminine Light: The Tao Te Ching for Inspiring Women

In The Feminine Light, the author uniquely captures the essence of womanhood and empowers all women through self-ownership, accountability and self-compassion to discover and honor their own inner light. This is the first translated version of The Tao Te Ching, the 81 verses, by a woman written specifically for women. Who are you as a woman? What does it mean to be a woman? Who are you as a spirit of light? What is the real difference between a woman and a man? What if we were all to agree that a woman is spirit while a man has spirit? How might the valuing of spirit be better recognized around the world to increase the welfare of all women individually as well as collectively? Can a woman become self-realized and enlightened in her own consciousness of herself? In physically sharing this planet with men, can we own the awareness of who we are as women? How do we learn to value ourselves and the innocence of our gender? As women, the art of listening to the self begins the quest toward seeing ourselves more clearly, moving with enhanced fluidity through life, having a greater sense of fulfillment and expanding our own enlightenment. By honoring a dialogue of daily spiritual meditations and deeply introspective questions, we discover the power of the feminine. Follow the journey to embrace your radiance...
