

YOU ARE NEVER ALL ALONE

Loneliness can cripple the heart at any age. While this little book is written for children, most of us can relate to some or all of the content. My wish is for everyone who feels lonely, isolated, and sad because they feel slighted or left out of things, for whatever reason, to realize that their Best Friend, best listener and best guide lives within them and stands beside them always and wants them to be happy. Sandy is married and lives in Connecticut. She facilitates art workshops for those who are grieving who seek a path to self discovery and spiritual healing.
