

To the Cross and Back: An Immigrants Journey from Faith to Reason

A Mexican immigrant and rising star within the Christian community abandons his faith and comes out as a gay atheist. In this exceptionally moving and soul-searching memoir, Fernando Alcántar recounts his incredible journey from poor Catholic boy on the dusty streets of Mexico to globetrotting missionary and high-profile Christian leader in the United States where he eventually left his celebrated life behind to advocate for the liberating power of reason and equality. With heart-wrenching honesty, he shares stories of trauma, tragedy, prejudice, uncertainty, survival, and, ultimately, discovery. In the process, he gives a voice to thousands who are hiding in the shadows, afraid to publicly question their religious, cultural, or sexual identity for fear of isolation and retaliation. You will discover that his is not simply a Mexican story or an American story, a heterosexuals story or a homosexuals story, a Christians story or an atheists story. Rather, his is a universal story one uniquely about and for our times.
